

2017 GONZAGA SUMMER WRESTLING ACADEMY

The Gonzaga Wrestling Academy is designed for wrestlers of all ages and skill levels. Our focus is building a solid foundation of technique for each student-athlete in a safe and positive athletic environment. As we give instruction to these young wrestlers, we will develop the social character values like loyalty, dedication, sacrifice, teamwork, and good citizenship and moral values like honesty, fairness, fair play, justice, responsibility, and accountability.

Camp Director: Wade Hughes Head Assistant Coach Gonzaga College High School Coach Hughes was a four-year letter winner at The George Washington University. A Midlands Champ, Coach Hughes holds the NCAA record for most career victories (182) and the NCAA record for most victories in a single season (57, with only 4 losses) in 1985. Coach Hughes trained with the United States National Team for two years as an assistant coach at Northern Michigan U. and represented the U.S. in several International competitions. He was assistant wrestling coach at Howard University for 11 seasons and then served as head coach until the program was discontinued in 2002. Post Howard University, Coach Hughes went on to St. John's College High School as head coach and soon after found his home at Gonzaga College High School assisting head coach Milton B. Yates, his former student-athlete.
